

Negative Energy Removal

Have you ever walked into a building and felt uncomfortable there for no apparent reason? If you have then it would be beneficial to have your property cleansed by an intuitive healer experienced in removing any blockages or spirit energies. This cleansing removes any blockages of positive energy, clears any spirit energies and allows the natural state of harmony, prosperity and balance to again be felt clearly. The cleansing process is a spiritual technique using the assistance of highly evolved spiritual beings who guide the healer to manipulate the energy vortexes and release any negative attachments.

Negative Energy cleansings can also be performed on individuals. Negative Energy Cleansing is a form of healing that removes intrusive negative energies from an individual's energy body. If intrusive energy lingers in the body it can manifest illness and unexplained pain, fatigue and other symptoms. These energies can be a result of traumatic events that have occurred in life, relationships, negative thought forms, past lives and other situations.

The practitioner is trained to see and sense energy and then, through the healing process, remove the unwanted energies from the individual. After it is determined that this healing is needed the practitioner will see what needs to be done to remove the intrusion.

Negative Energy Cleansing can result in a reduction of physical and emotional pain, and support the physical, mental, emotional and spiritual well being of the individual.

Negative energies or obstacles can come from a variety of sources including but not limited to astral influences, telepathic pathways and negative beliefs.
